It’s safe to say that whoever coined the phrase “less is more” was certainly not referring to spa treatments. Coming a long way from your traditional back massage, spas around the globe are now offering an endless list of delicious treatments for the spa aficionado. So whether it’s yoga under a majestic Rajasthan tent in India, sharing a mother-daughter Pomegranate Sugar Scrub amidst California’s scenic Ojai Mountains, or something in between, we’ve found some options that just might assist in planning your client’s next spa retreat.
